CITY NEWS.

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—At this popular place of amusement Miss Mary Mitchell closed a very successful engagement. To-night Miss Zoe, the Cuban sylph, will make her first appearance this season in our city, on which occasion the great military drama of the French Spy will be performed. Miss Zoe is given up by all critics to be the head dancer and pantomimist on the stage, and being a favorite in our city, we have no doubt that she will meet with success. The performance to-night will close with the farce of the Dead Shot.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—This evening Miss Heron will appear in her famed role of Camille. Recently, at the Nibley Theater, New York, she enacted this character for six nights, drawing larger audiences than had ever assembled in that theater. On Wednesday will be presented, for the first time here, a new play, by Miss Heron, entitled "The Mystery of the Temple," recently performed in Boston for eighteen consecutive nights. It will be produced with new scenery, dresses and appointments.

MAGNIFICENT PRESENTS FOR EVERYONE.—At the Cosmopolitan Gift Book Store, No. 210 Fourth street, the number of fortunates last week was unprecedented since the opening of the house six months ago. Mr. F. of Boyle county, was the recipient of a silver teaset worth $50. Mr. J. W. Johnson, of Lexington, drew a dinner castor worth $10. Miss Abby McFarland, with a family Bible, was the fortunate recipient of a gold hunting-case watch worth $75. B. Brooks, of Adair county, drew a bracelet worth $20. Uncle B. won a silver open glass worth $15. Those are but a few of the many who have purchased a single book at this establishment and been made happy by the result of the investment. A more complete variety of books will scarcely be found in any book house in America than at the Cosmopolitan Gift Book Store.

ROBBERS.—On Friday night some thief or thieves entered the grocery and dry goods store of Mr. Conrad Hiltz, on Breckinridge street, between Third and Fourth, and robbed him of $150 in money and about $500 worth of goods. The entrance was effected through the cellar. On the same night several other houses in the same vicinity were robbed and six convalescents arrived from various points.

BARRACKS NO. 1.—Business was rather brisk at the barracks yesterday. Six hundred convalescents were sent to Nashville. Five deserters arrived from Bowlinggreen, sixteen from Indiana's hills and three rebel prisoners from Bowlinggreen. One hundred and six convalescents arrived from various points.

The United States Quartermaster requested the contractor of the city railroads to push the road toward yesterday, and completed that portion of it between Second and Brook streets. The company endeavored to comply with the request, but they were unable to obtain funds.

The rumor that a fight had occurred on the corner of Hancock and Green streets night before last was the imagination of some chap who had whisky on the brain.

There will be a nice curtain party in the Masonic Temple to-night, for the benefit of a widow lady and her blind children.

Billy Faust, the clever mill agent, has our thanks for Washington papers of yesterday.

See the advertisement of Mr. Henry D. Sibley, the eminent photographer, in another column.

A tremendous drove of Uncle Sam's beasts were driven past our office yesterday.

Yesterday being Sunday, there was very little business done in military circles.

Two hundred drafted men arrived from Indianapolis yesterday.

DASTARDLY MURDER.—On Saturday evening, about half past six o'clock, Mr. Cofer, an old citizen of Nashville, was shot and killed by some cowardly scoundrel while sitting quietly in his house, on West Gay street, before McMemories. The murderer's weapon was discharged through a window. Mr. Cofer's house is now other house, but so suddenly and unexpectedly was the wicked deed perpetrated that no one saw or has any idea who did it. The murderer was a carpenter by trade, and had for some time been employed at the Chattanooga depot.

A party of about seventeen guerrillas entered Flemingsburg, Kentucky, on Tuesday night and commenced their usual ravages and robberies. The citizens rallied and soon drove the rascals from the place, maiming their plunder. In the fight two of the robbers were killed and two badly wounded. One of them killed was a man named Evans, a notorious chancer.

LAST FROM THE FRONT.—There can be little doubt of the fact that Hood's army was, a day or two since, near the Tennessee river, but the rebel leader hastened to attempt a crossing. The news comes through refugees, and is very contradictory and confused. A few days will doubtless throw some light on the subject.

ROBBERS.—On the night of the 28th a band of guerrillas, thirty or forty in number, entered Tilton, in Fleming county, Kentucky, and robbed the store of Mr. Johnson of dry goods, boots, shoes and hats, etc. of all other articles they wanted. They also stole a number of horses in the neighborhood.

On Tuesday night last a band of thieves entered the city to rob the Customhouse of all the money they had. They also stole several boxes in the neighborhood.

A band of guerrillas robbed High Seeds, near Murphysville, Kentucky, of about $150 on Tuesday night.

MOVEMENTS OF FORREST.—On Monday General Forrest left Paducah, and on his return on Wednesday, received dispatches from General Sherman, and from Columbus, stating that Forrest intended attacking Paducah, and at the same time menacing Columbus. Scouts and deserters reported large numbers of rebels passing Dresden, Trenton, Lexington, Shady Grove and McMemories, at the latter place heavy supplies being accumulated, all within fifty miles of McMemories. Forrest was also known to have been at Jackson with several thousand men. Danger being imminent, Wednesday night the cavalry was sent with from Mayfield. The same night rebels were advised to pack up their stocks and places them aboard steamers, which were detained for that purpose.

A Massachusetts soldier, recently deceased in Washington, had twenty-four distinct wounds upon his person.

The 27th scouts reported a rebel force within sixteen miles of the city, since which time no intelligence of their movements has been received. Every business house is closed, and the goods removed to a place of safety. Business of all kinds is suspended, and everything prepared to give Forrest a warm reception.

There is no danger but that General Forrest will be able to hold the place should the rebels have the temerity to attack him, which all believe he will not do.

Bufo's headquarters is Shady Grove. He has eight regiments, three battalions, and a battery of Dahlgren guns. Orders were issued for a concentration of the forces on the Tennessee line, and prepare to march on Paducah. Forrest, Chalmers and Bufo are all in command.

Thursday a dash was made upon Johnsonville. Sixty head of cattle were captured.

RETALIATION.—Some time ago the bodies of Major Wilson and six men, captured at Ironton, Mo., were found about fifteen miles southwest from there, on the old State road, near Jefferson farm. Major Wilson was shot through the body several times. One of the bodies was supposed to be that of an artillery bugler, from the trumplings on his jacket.

Major Wilson was captured by all critics to be the head dangerous and pantomimist on the stage, and being a favorite in our city, we have no doubt that she will meet with success. The performance to-night will close with the farce of the Dead Shot.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—This evening Miss Heron will appear in her famed role of Camille. Recently, at the Nibley Theater, New York, she enacted this character for six nights, drawing larger audiences than had ever assembled in that theater. On Wednesday will be presented, for the first time here, a new play, by Miss Heron, entitled "The Mystery of the Temple," recently performed in Boston for eighteen consecutive nights. It will be produced with new scenery, dresses and appointments.

GENERAL ROBERTSON issued the following order of retulsion:

From testimony which cannot be doubted, the Commanding General learns that Major James Wilson, Third M. S. Cavalry, and his enlisted men of his command, while in camp, were given up by Major General Sterling Price to the guerrillas for execution.

The present Marshal General of the Department will send a Major and six enlisted men to the command of Major Wilson, to the military prison at Alton, Ill., to be kept in solitary confinement until the fate of Major Wilson and his men is known.

One man will receive the same treatment as Major Wilson, and his command received.

The present Marshal General is held responsible for the execution of this order.

The man chosen was Jas. W. Tater, aged 21; Asa V. Ladd, aged 24; Chas. W. Menehan, aged 22; John Nichols, aged 21; John N. Ferguson, aged 23; Harry H. Blackburn, aged 47. Two of them were from Arkansas, and the others were residents of Missouri.

They were to be shot on Saturday.

A woman named Eliza Ziegley lately threw herself from the window of a room in the rear of the old Hoff's Hotel building, in Buffalo, and was instantly killed by the fall to the ground. Persons called to the spot by the noise of the catastrophe found the clothes of the unfortunate woman in fire, and upon proceeding to the room from which she had escaped, discovered the bedclothes also burning. It is supposed that the fire must have been communicated to the bed while she slept, and that when aroused she was unable to find the door and so dashed herself, in bewilderment or despair, through the window.

BILL ANDERSON KILLED.—Bridgadier General Craig telegraphs from St. Joseph on the 29th that Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Thirty-third M. S. M., with a detachment of that regiment, and some R. C. Y. county militia, had a fight with B. H. Anderson on the day before, at Albany, Ray county. Anderson and seven of his men were killed. Four of our men were severely wounded—none killed.

Colonel Charles E. Phelps has been nominated by the unconditional Union party of the Third Congressional District of Maryland for Congress. Mr. Phelps' nomination completes the list of the Union candidates from Maryland. All the nominees are members of the present Congress, with the exception of Col. Padua and Col. Holland, of the Fifth District.

There are several cases of small-pox in Providence, many of which have proved fatal. One case that will doubtless prove fatal is of a girl two years of age, who, through the reprehensible neglect of a teacher, has been allowed to attend a public school without the certificate of vaccination required to feed under obligations to purchase. They called a call from everybody.
